NEW VIEWS

There is nothing makes a store more popular than fair dealing. Have right qualities—at right prices—and the crowds will come.

We are intensely careful in these two regards.

We do not count the fame that comes through "bargain" offerings. Whenever we can quote a low cost we do it—but value never pays the loss.

Capes.

What a lively season we have had! What a lot of Capes we have sold! And all because we have given the "right" worths at the right prices. Now we want to draw the season to a close and we have played havoc with the markings. But the qualities are undisturbed. Lots of the exclusive styles waiting for you.

Black and Tan Cheviot and Gray Diagonal Cape—single and double-lined and braided—$5 kind for $3.50. Navy Blue, Black and Tan Double Cape—$7.50 kind for $5. Suits.

Reductions here, too. We have made a lot of converts this season for Ready-to-Wear Suits. All we needed was the opportunity to demonstrate our ability to please your fancy and fit you to your satisfaction.

Navy Blue and Black All-wool Serge Suits, with cutaway jacket, half lined with silk; large sleeves and extra wide skirts, lined $10 and $12.50 kinds for $8 and $10. Wash Waists.

Every one of them. The trouble with most Wash Waists is they don't hold their shape after they are put in the laundry. Ours will. They are cut right. Satisfaction is what we guarantee you.

Separate Skirts.

More reductions. Fresh prices to speedily clear them out. We have had the best of it right along from all accounts. Every-body seems to have found the greatest satisfaction here. THE VENEZUELAN BOUNDARY CAMPOS IN CUBA

Two Letters by Secretary Gresham to Ambassador Bayard on the Subject.

The Desire of the United States to Adjust the Differences by Means of Arbitration.

The arrival of the new Captain General at Santiago.

An Immense Turnout to Welcome the "Pencemaker"—Raids of the Insurgents.

A few minutes before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the distant booming of guns was heard to the south, and all the residents of Santiago, Cuba, knew that Capt. Gen. Martinez de Campos was passing in the Castillo del Morro, which guards the water approach to that city, and which was saluting the "Pencemaker de Cuba." At 5:20 the steamer on which he had traveled turned the sharp bend in the bay and appeared to the immense crowd that lined the shore in front of the city. All places of business were closed and the town wore a holiday appearance. The streets, particularly those in the vicinity of the plaza, opposite which the palace of the governor of the province is situated, were crowded with ladies, a most unusual thing at that early hour. As Marshal de Campos was driven slowly up the rather steep street that leads to the plaza the crowd greeted him with enthusiastic cheers and acclaimed him as "the noble peacemaker."

The arrival of Marshal de Campos has caused great rejoicing in all classes of society, and they are confident that he will bring peace to the island in a short time. He knows perfectly well the difficulties he has before him, but it is believed that with his thorough knowledge of Cuban character, gained by his former experience in the island, he will be able to grasp the critical situation prevailing upon the rebels to withdraw or drive them from the field. All political parties are willing to aid his efforts to re-establish peace, and the people feel great relief now that he has assumed the direction of affairs. If he cannot by peaceful means induce the rebels to withdraw, he will fight them vigorously, as has been the case in the circumstances of war will permit. It is thought that under the inspiration of his high motives, which previously induced him to such an excellent result in the Cuban trouble, he will speedily control the revolution, quell the island and restore the confidence of the people in the government. To obtain peace, to consolidate a new regime of justice and progress in which the constitutional elements will have their room, and to satisfy all the legitimate feelings and ideals compatible with nationality is the great work proposed by the new captain general.

Raids of the Insurgents.

A body of mounted insurgents numbering about 1,000 men have appeared in the district Puerto del Patria. They went around various plantations and took fresh horses from the planters, leaving their jaded animals in their stead.

A note has been circulated among the revolutionary chiefs, inviting them to attend a conference at the residence of M. de Campos, two of the insurgent leaders do not agree to the course of action.

The military governor of Matanzas telegraphs that that district is now peaceful. He has issued an order to the civil guard, directing that body to perform their duties at a time of peace.

All prosecutions against American citizens growing out of political offenses have been transferred from the military to the ordinary civil jurisdiction.

On the morning of the 14th, Marti and Gomez in Cuba, as furnished by Col. Figueroa, are that they left Hayti with ten men in a small schooner, about April 1, for the Bayamo. They touched at Matanzas, landed north of Cuba, and then effected a landing.

A passenger on the Plant steamer from Cuba, a Tampa, last night, came directly from Jamaica, where he says the Cuban colony is in strong sympathy, and will probably allow the insurgents to land. Havana has learned that the Cubans had lost thirteen leaders during the past week and suffered other losses, but says the Cubans are not discouraged.

Stirred Up by Spaniards.

H. O. Stone, a wealthy Chicagoan, who with his wife returned to Chicago from a tour through Central America and Cuba, says that he believes the numerous Cuban insurrections are stirred up by Spanish officers for their own glory.

"I believe that these insurrections are stirred up by the Spanish officers themselves," said Mr. Stone. "It means more glory for them, and they are not so hard to find rabid revolutionists, and the 'outrages' written of at such length about imprisoned 'American citizens' are, as far as we cloud learn, cases of naturalized Cubans. Almost every man who is working in tobacco factories at from $3 to $5 a day, sets aside one day's pay each week for the Cuban cause. This goes to show that the Cuban people are not so much interested in the revolution as the Spaniards are."
